CODE OF CONDUCT

1682 is designed to allow professionals to share their insights into the business of innovation in an open, respectful, and positive environment. All 1682 participants, including speakers, sponsors, attendees, and staff members are expected to adhere to the following rules of conduct.

AT 1682, YOU AGREE TO:

- Respect the boundaries of all participants
- Adhere to requests for confidentiality from speakers and other attendees
- Respect the conference venue and its staff
- Avoid aggressively pushing your own services, products, causes, or agenda

Inappropriate behavior can negatively affect the 1682 experience for both speakers and attendees. Harassment and improper conduct of any form will not be tolerated. The following behaviors are unacceptable:

- Invasion of privacy, this includes taking photos and videos of people you don't know and sharing photos and videos of confidential presentations
- Sexual harassment of any kind, including unwelcome sexual attention, language, and inappropriate physical contact
- Disruption of programming through inappropriate or non-constructive comments
- Abuse of power, including abuses related to position, wealth, race, sexual orientation, ability, or gender

1682 reserves the right to refuse entry to or remove any party from the event at any time. All determinations are at the sole discretion of 1682 staff. The consequences of inappropriate behavior are as follows:

- Immediate expulsion from the event
- Disqualification from participation in future events
- Forfeiture of refund

If you experience or are witness to an incident that violates the Code of Conduct, please immediately find and notify a 1682 staff member or use our name-optional reporting form to formally submit an incident report.
